Laicization: I wish to inform you that Yvon Arsenault is now officially laicized, that is, completely removed from the clerical state by a decree from the pope. Thus, he loses all his rights and is suspended from his duties as a priest recognized by the Catholic Church. Yvon Arsenault had been removed from all ministries within the Archdiocese of Moncton and elsewhere since 2012 following allegations of sexual abuse of minors. On behalf of the Diocesan Church and as Archbishop of Moncton, I sincerely apologize to the victims and their families. We continue to be vigilant to ensure that anyone working in the Church fully complies with the policies in place to prevent abuse of any kind.

Medical assistance in dying: Share your views online

Medical Assistance in Dying Legislation: The Trudeau government has accepted a court ruling that Canadians should not have to be near death to qualify for medical assistance to end their lives but it is now considering whether quard against abuse other hurdles should be imposed to guard against abuse. The public are invited to offer feedback until January 27 at the following link: https://www.justice.gc.ca/eng/cons/ad-am/index.html A CTV news article on the topic may be viewed at the following link:

https://www.ctvnews.ca/health/feds-to-delete-near-death-requirement-but-couldimpose-new-limits-to-assisted-death-1.4764374

In his presentation, A Pastoral Reflection on Medical Assistance in Dying which took place October 2018, Archbishop Vienneau noted that in every country where this legislation has been adopted, it was only the first step. Once the door was opened, it just kept getting wider and wider. The questionnaire at the above link, seems to presume that anyone filling this out already agrees with Medical Assistance in Dying and now it's just a matter of eligibility. Where do you stand on this issue?

Please make your views known to government prior to the date indicated.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE - FEBRUARY 2ND

The purpose of the day is "to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels" as well as "to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervor which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord" (Saint John Paul II, 1997)
