

Love Your Enemies

Perhaps one of the most difficult mandates that Jesus directed of his followers is love of enemies. He was not talking about people whom we do not particularly like or who do not belong to your families, ethnic or political groups. He was very clear about this. Jesus was talking about those who actually hate us, cause us physical harm, or who take from us what we need to live. This kind of love is not only difficult but seems contrary to a specific kind of justice. This justice is called retributive justice and it maintains that evil deeds should be punished. This kind of justice is often accomplished by requiring time in jail or some form of fine.

However, another kind of justice is called restorative justice. It maintains that a violation of someone's rights not only harms the victim, but it also fractures society. Therefore, it is not enough for the perpetrator to be punished; society must be restored as well. This might require restoring the victim's sense of personal value or security. At times some form of community service is required. It has been said that the best way to get rid of enemies is to make them friends. That seems to be what Jesus is advocating in today's Gospel. If someone has hurt you, overwhelm that person with your kindness, just as God has overwhelmed you with kindness and mercy.

FOR Reflection

- ✱ Think of how often you have been made new by the forgiveness of others.
- ✱ Who in your life might be made new by your forgiveness?

[Jesus said,] "Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing."

LUKE 6:38

COME & JOIN US!!! Synod - You are Invited

For the past few weeks, you have been reading notices about Pope Francis' call for the Church to embark on a journey of reflection and discernment under the title For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission. The Preparatory Document says, the fundamental question that guides this consultation of the People of God is the following:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, 'journeys together.' How is this 'journeying together' happening in your particular Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our 'journeying together'?

The synodal process requires us to gather and to respond to this fundamental question. To facilitate this discernment and reflection several themes are presented for our consideration. The PMT has reviewed these and has chosen the following theme:

LISTENING-SPEAKING OUT Listening is the first step, but it requires an open mind and heart, without prejudice. All are invited to speak with courage and parrhesia, that is, freedom, truth and charity.

You are invited to come to the church hall on Thursday, February 24, 7:00 PM to be part of this historic event. As noted in the earlier bulletin announcements, all are welcome and, in fact, encouraged, to come and participate. Invite your friends, acquaintances, everyone. As Pope Francis reminds us so often, especially invite those on the peripheries, those marginalized for whatever reason. Let all come to share where they see the action of the Holy Spirit in their lives and in the life of the Church.

Call to transformation: Individuals, Church & Society

In Laudato Si' paragraph 202, Pope Francis says that "A great cultural, spiritual, and educational challenge stands before us, and it will demand that we set out on the long path of renewal." On October 10, 2021, Pope Francis launched a two-year synod process in the Catholic Church. This is a "time to look others in the eye and listen to what they have to say, to build rapport, to be sensitive to the questions of our sisters and brothers." Our world is in the midst of a climate emergency. To move toward a greener and more sustainable future, drastic changes need to happen in our society at the environmental, economic, and social levels. We trust that God is with us and leading us on a path towards a just and more sustainable world for all humanity and for all of God's creatures. You are invited to our diocesan web site at <http://www.diomoncton.ca/en/news-item/diocesan-committee-laudato-si-> to view the sixth presentation from our Laudato Si Committee, prepared by Mr Eugène Aucoin.

Out of respect for those with sensitivities, please avoid wearing scented products in the Church, Parish Office & the Church Hall.
Thank you.

Dear Padre,

Previously you wrote that the Church is the bride of Christ, and we should remain faithful to that bond. Is there another reason to remain in the Catholic Church?

The Church is also the body of Christ. When Jesus ascended into heaven, he left his disciples with the mission he had received from the Father: instruct everyone in Jesus' teachings and baptize them into his divine life (Matthew 28:19–20). Through the Church, Jesus would remain present in the world.

Some take offense because the Church claims the authority of Jesus himself to teach. It teaches that marriage is between one man and one woman, that contraception and abortion are immoral, that capital punishment is a sin. Jesus himself may not have expressly addressed these issues, but he said to his apostles, "Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me" (Luke 10:16). And to Peter he said, "Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:19).

It's true that since the time of the apostles some members, and even Church leaders, have caused scandal. The Lord asks that they, like Peter, repent and live a life of obedience and service to the Lord.

That's why it's important that we examine our own actions. Someone who abandons the Church due to scandals within its ranks should realize that encouraging others to abandon the bride of Christ and the body of Christ is a scandalous act itself.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

We need to stop seeing the reform of the Church as putting a patch on an old garment, or simply drafting a new Apostolic Constitution....It cannot be a matter of putting a patch here or there, for the Church is not just an item of Christ's clothing, but rather his body.
