Rejoice!

Today is Laetare Sunday, the Lenten Sunday to rejoice. We are encouraged to rejoice, not because Lent is half over, but because something extraordinary has occurred. All three readings for today applaud some wondrous and joyous occasion.

The reading from Joshua notes the end of the Israelites' grueling Egyptian and wilderness experience. They settled in Canaan and now celebrated the anniversary of their deliverance by offering to God in gratitude the fruits of their own harvest. The people who once were landless have now been made anew. This is surely a reason to rejoice.

Paul's words to the Corinthians were reason for great rejoicing. He assured them that, because of the death and resurrection of Jesus, their sinfulness was not held against them. Instead, they were now reconciled with God. They were a new creation. This too is reason to rejoice.

Jesus' story about the merciful father touches every life. The young son turned away from his home and his family, yet it was the father's actions that brought about the reconciliation. The story did not explicitly say that he simply forgave his son. More than that, it says that he was filled with deep compassion for him—a compassion that restored the bond between them. This compassion brought the son who was dead back to life. There is no greater reason for rejoicing.

God has brought us into a new land, has made each of us a new creation, has brought us back to the embrace of our Father. And so, we rejoice.

Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace
(CCODP) April 3

Through their prayer, fasting and almsgiving during Lent, Christians express their desire to turn toward God and to all God's children in preparation for Easter. The Bishop of Canada have reserved the Season of Lent for a collection to assist the Global South. Normally this collection is held on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. On the day of the collection, an appropriate petition may be added to the Prayer of the Faithful. Founded and mandated in 1967 by the Bishops of Canada, and now a member of the Caritas International network of Catholic agencies, the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace financially supports development and aid projects in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as informs Canadian Catholics on international social justice questions. "So many people even today hope to have enough to eat. The planet has food for all, but the will to share with everyone seems to be lacking. To prepare the table for all, and to ask that there be one table for all. Doing whatever we can so that everyone has food, but also reminding the world's powerful that God will call them to be judged one day, and it will be demonstrated whether they have truly tried to provide food for Him in each person (cf. Mt 25.35) and whether they have acted in order that the environment would not be destroyed but would be able to produce this food."

International meeting of the catechumenate 2022

To mark the 50th anniversary of the promulgation of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the Institut Catholique de Paris is holding a hybrid physical and virtual conference from May 5-7, 2022, entitled The RCIA at 50: Developments and Challenges. When introduced, the RCIA was unprecedented drawing on well proven liturgical practices that had not been used for hundreds of years. Within five years of promulgation, the Church began to recognize the catechumenate as the inspiration for all catechesis. Organizers of the conference feel the "50th anniversary ... offers an occasion to re-examine and deepen the reflection on this ritual and on the process of Christian initiation." Major talks will be translated into English, and documents will be distributed to any registered participants. Currently, the planning committee is in the process of preparing workshops for English speaking North America. The link to the conference can be found at <https://www.eventbrite.fr/e/billets-assises-internationales-du-catechumenat-2022-289490412617>. While the website does not offer an English version, once reached it can be translated using Google Translate. Cost is €110. Anyone interested in further information can contact Ellen and will be forwarded the brochure outlining the schedule of the days and indicating North American times and additional information for the sessions.

A special collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund.

On September 24, 2021, the Bishops of Canada issued a formal apology to the Indigenous peoples of our country. A few days later, they collectively made a nationwide financial commitment to support healing and reconciliation initiatives for residential school survivors, their families, and their communities. The national goal is to raise $30 million over five years. In solidarity with all Indigenous peoples and, particularly with our local Mi'gmaq communities, the Archdiocese of Moncton is making a financial appeal to the faithful in our parishes to contribute to this fundraising effort. The first annual collection will take place on May 7 and 8, 2022. Starting on April 9, I will be sending out weekly announcements in the parish bulletins to inform you about the reasons for this national collection and the use of the funds. The Holy Father is scheduled to meet with individual Indigenous delegations the week of March 28th, 2022. A final audience with all participants will take place on Friday, April 1st. I invite you to pray for the success of these meetings that they may be fruitful and further engage us in recognizing the truth and achieving reconciliation. -Archbishop Valéry Vienneau

EVENING PRAYER

Christians are called in baptism to be people of prayer, to pray always, praising God and pleading for the world. Our priests, encourage us at the beginning of Lent to be more cognizant of prayer during the Lenten season. Why not try gathering with the faith community for Evening Prayer? It only takes up a half hour of your time. We follow the format for Evening Prayer that is offered in our Catholic Book of Worship.

All parishioners of our parish unit are invited & encouraged to gather for Evening Prayer Thursday evenings at St. Bernard's Church at 6 PM-March 31 & April 7.

Standing up to corporate power in Honduras

The People and Planet First campaign is about helping communities stand up to corporate power. In Honduras, as in much of the Global South, corporations often threaten and criminalize activists who speak up against their abuses. The Lenca Indigenous leader Víctor Vásquez was imprisoned for fighting the corporate takeover of his people's ancestral territory. Development and Peace's partner, the Honduran Centre for the Promotion of Community Development (CEHPRODEC), helped free him from jail. Another partner, Caritas Choluteca, trains and accompanies community leaders in advocating for policies that respect human rights and the environment. Recently, they got mayoral election candidates to undertake to declare the municipality of Orocuina a mining-free zone if elected. Read more about these people's victories in our Mini-magazine at devp.org/lent/resources

ONLINE COLLECTION FOR UKRAINE

Development and Peace is taking online donations to help the thousands of people affected by the ongoing war in Ukraine. You can make a donation on our website (www.devp.org), by calling 1 888 664-3387 or by sending us a cheque by mail (1425 René-Lévesque Blvd. West, 3rd floor, Montreal, QC, H3G 1T7) made out to Development and Peace and marked "Ukraine Emergency".

St. Bernard's Lenten Penitential service will be Tuesday, April 5, 2022 @ 6:30 PM

Lenten Penitential celebration is intended for all who have already celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We are invited to listen to the word of the Lord, & take some time to examine our Christian living (examination of conscience) in preparation for Easter. What attitudes or actions have kept us from loving God & neighbor the way the Lord calls us to do? Maybe we have hardened our hearts to others, or hurt others. The Lord calls us to come back with all our hearts to recognize & celebrate his forgiveness, mercy, compassion and peace. Take the opportunity to celebrate this sacrament and to help us welcome the Lord's pardon and peace. May we all take advantage of these sacred days to draw ever nearer to the Lord.

To celebrate Synod is to agree to "walk together", to discover what new steps the Spirit is inviting us to take to better respond to the Church's mission of Evangelization. The local phase of Synod began in the fall of 2021. As part of our Synodal journey, each parish in our pastoral unit has already met once to discuss a Synodal theme. The next step for our pastoral unit, St. Bernard's, St. Vincent's & St. Clement's, is to meet for a second time to discuss the theme: Co-Responsible in the Mission.

Parishioners, and all interested persons, from the Pastoral unit are encouraged and invited to attend.

Dear Padre,

When I'm trying to pray, I can't stop thinking about my to-do list. How do I keep my mind from racing when I pray?

Most spiritual directors encourage a person to enter gently into solitude and prayer. Real conversation with any friend begins with warm acknowledgment of that friend's presence, so as you sit or kneel, acknowledge that you are in a sacred place and that God is present.

Several techniques can help us find interior silence and solitude. Many people find it helps to sit in a comfortable position and pay close attention to their breathing. Taking slow, deep breaths relaxes our minds and hearts.

When repeated, a sacred word like Jesus or Abba can focus our attention and help us let go of the distractions that can so easily crowd our consciousness.

Another technique is to take a few moments to find quiet, then read a passage from Scripture. Many people choose the Gospel passage of the day; others read a Gospel through from beginning to end by reading a short passage each day. Other excellent techniques to focus your praying include the Church traditions of lectio divina as well as the imaginative prayer method advocated by St. Ignatius.

True conversation goes both ways. One way God speaks to us is through the word. Reading Scripture as part of our conversation with God is a good way to be sure we don't do all the talking.

Prayer often coexists with distraction. Indeed, the human mind struggles to dwell for long on a single thought. We all experience this constant whirlwind of images and illusions in perpetual motion, which accompanies us even during sleep. And we all know that it is not good to follow this inclination toward disorder.
