

Learning How to Die

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It has been pointed out that one of the tasks of life is to learn how to die well, that is, to go where we would rather not go, to love when we know it will cost, to offer ourselves even when we know we will be used. If we die a bit every day, sometimes with struggle and sacrifice in those situations that may call for such, then at our final moment we will be able to stand before that specter face to face and not run, simply because we have met before and have been able to walk away the victor.

Dying well does not mean we do so without fear. Courage blossoms when we stand in a field of fear. Even the Lord Jesus “offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears” to God, as the Letter to the Hebrews notes. Dying well does not mean we do so cleanly. Dying is often messy, and it is always an uprooting that disrupts and scatters everything nearby.

Nor does dying well mean we do so in control of the event. That is what is so devastating about death. It has complete and total control. At its best and at its worst the only way to die well is to say “yes” to it every time it demands our submission. And like the eye of stillness at the center of the hurricane, it is at the heart of death where we embrace resurrection and where the holy offers life. It is where we can have a deep encounter with the Lord Jesus. ●

Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.

JOHN 12:24

Reflect

Can you accept the little deaths along the way as preparation for the final passing from this life?

Next Sunday, March 24 is Palm Sunday

We celebrate the triumphal entry of Jesus Christ into Jerusalem, the week before his death and resurrection. Palm Sunday is also referred to as "Passion Sunday." It marks the beginning of Holy Week, which concludes on Easter Sunday. When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the crowds greeted him by waving palm branches and covering his path with palm branches. Immediately following this great time of celebration in the ministry of Jesus, he begins his journey to the cross

MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP OF MONCTON FOR SHARE LENT 2024

Re: Development and Peace - Caritas Canada Share Lent Campaign 2024 Celebration of Solidarity Sunday, March 17, 2024, 5th Sunday of Lent

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Since February 14, Ash Wednesday, we have been in Lent, a liturgical season that prepares us to commemorate the passion, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Each year, the Church proposes a series of fasting, prayer and sharing gestures that offer us the opportunity to draw closer to God, to Jesus, and to our brothers and sisters in need at home and abroad.

If these three gestures are inseparable to live our Lent to the full, I'd like to underline the importance of sharing, in particular the Share Lent of Development and Peace - Caritas Canada, the official international solidarity organization of the Catholic Church in Canada and the Canadian member of Caritas Internationalis. In Africa, South America, Asia, Eastern Europe and the Middle East, Development and Peace supports partners who accompany local communities whose members are actors in their own development. The organization also responds to requests for humanitarian aid during natural and man-made disasters.

This year, Development and Peace invites us to show solidarity with peasants around the world, and to mobilize for the recognition, protection and guarantee of their rights to land, water, seeds, biodiversity, food sovereignty, a healthy environment, and decent livelihoods. Under the theme Create Hope - Reaping our Rights, three partners are highlighted. They work in Bolivia, Indonesia and Nigeria respectively. They face a number of challenges, caused in particular by climate change and the excessive exploitation of extractive resources.

That's why, on March 17, the 5th Sunday of Lent, also known as Development and Peace Solidarity Sunday, I encourage you to carry our brothers and sisters affected by poverty in your thoughts and hearts. On this nationwide Sunday, the bishops encourage the members of the Christian communities of their dioceses to pray for peace, to bear witness to the work of Development and Peace, and to make a donation in the Share Lent collection or online at www.de\p.on.!/fr.

Sincerely yours in Jesus our Redeemer,

† Guy Desrochers, C.Ss.R.

Archbishop of Moncton

Dear Padre,

What is the difference between temptation and sin?

The temptations of Jesus, as they are recorded in the Gospels (Mark 1:12, Luke 4:1, and Matthew 4:1), give us the proper direction with regard to sin and temptation. Jesus was tempted three times, but he did not sin. More than that, Jesus put his trust in God during the temptations. Jesus' message is clear: if you feel tempted, call out to God!

The Church teaches that sin is a deliberative process. Temptation is something that happens to you without your consent: a thought or desire pops into your mind. For temptation to become a sin, you have to entertain that thought or desire, or plan to act on it, or do it. That's when temptation "turns a corner" and becomes sin.

Although the sacrament of penance is available throughout the year, the Church places a special emphasis on it during Lent. There may be a communal penance service in your area. Perhaps you can commit now to participating in the service. If it's been a while since you've been to confession or you're not sure what to do or say, just tell the priest. He will show you. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We are called to take on the paschal law of losing life in order to receive it renewed and eternal. And what does losing life mean?... It means to think less about oneself, about personal interests and to know how to "see" and to meet the needs of our neighbors, especially the least of them.
